

Over 350,000 women and people with a cervix across East of England are not up to date with their cervical screening.

Book your screening today.
Remind your friends and family.

Scan for more information and how to book:

Did you know you need cervical screening even if you have had the HPV vaccine?